5) List two words with the root word “plat(y)”. A third is extra credit.

1) __________________________ Plate______________________________
2) __________________________
3) __________________________
4*) __________________________

6) Some animals are called parasites. Ticks and tapeworms are parasites found on dogs, cats and people. Why would these animals have the name parasite?

7) Some cameras use a stand called a tripod. Draw a tripod below.

8) On the first day of class students have seven questions they want answered. I attempted to answer some of them. List below two that I answered and explain how I answered them for you.