

William Barton Rogers Individual Award

The Virginia Museum of Natural History Foundation invites nominations for its 25th Annual Thomas Jefferson Awards/The William Barton Rogers Individual Award. This award will be given to an individual who has shown significant support for the natural sciences in Virginia, through contributions to research, science education, or other relevant programs of the Virginia Museum of Natural History. The award will be presented during a special ceremony on February 9, 2012 in Richmond.

Award Criteria

- Nominee must be an individual who has shown significant support for the natural sciences in Virginia, through contributions to research, science education, or other relevant programs of the Virginia Museum of Natural History.
- Nominee must be a Virginian

Nominations

The letter of nomination should provide the following:

- Full description of the outstanding contributions to natural science for which the person is being nominated
- The nominee's full name, title, home and work addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail address
- Name, address, phone number, e-mail address, and signature of the person making the nomination
- Letters of support from individuals other than person making nomination

Materials that document the nominee's accomplishments can also be submitted but are not required. This normally includes a resume, newspaper articles, and other materials that support the nomination. We can only accept materials that can be readily photocopied for distribution to the selection committee. No materials will be returned. Contact Charlotte Harter at 276-634-4162 or charlotte.harter@vmnh.virginia.gov for additional information. Send the complete nomination package to:

Thomas Jefferson Awards Selection Committee
Virginia Museum of Natural History Foundation
21 Starling Avenue
Martinsville, VA 24112

Nominations must be received no later than December 1, 2011.

The Virginia Museum of Natural History Foundation's Thomas Jefferson Awards were established in 1987 to honor individuals, associates, and corporations who have made significant contributions to the natural sciences in Virginia. The awards are named for Virginians, by birth or adoption, who have established traditions of excellence in the world of science and who have brought recognition and prestige to the Commonwealth.